- Capture attention immediately with a compelling scene or hook.
- Establish the tone and genre from the outset.
- Introduce the protagonist and initial conflict or situation.

2. Introducing the World and Characters

- Show, don't tell: reveal key details through action, dialogue, and visuals.
- Establish relationships and character dynamics early.
- Highlight what makes each character unique and intriguing.

3. Building the Central Conflict

- Present the main problem or goal that drives the episode.
- Set up stakes?what's at risk for the characters?
- Introduce obstacles and complications to maintain tension.

4. Developing the Series Arc

- Plant seeds for future episodes or overarching storylines.
- Leave some questions unanswered to entice viewers to continue.

5. Concluding the Pilot

- Provide a satisfying but intriguing ending.
